YOUR MUSIC CAN HEAL!

Music for Healing and Transition Program

Are you a musician with a compassionate heart ready to learn how to use your gifts as a form of palliative and therapeutic comfort care? This summer, Longy is delighted to collaborate with the Music for Healing and Transition Program™, Inc. to offer an intensive, scientifically-based summer institute. Musicians can become Certified Music Practitioners (CMPs)® while gaining valuable experience with the program's teachers and medical professionals.

Longy's summer institute offers a stimulating and inclusive format, enabling students to expedite their training by completing the educational modules within a period of six months. Modules 1 through 4 will be held in-person on Longy's campus with Module 5 at a hospital. Participants in this program may be vocalists or instrumentalists. Both skilled amateur and professional musicians are welcome.

THE FIVE MODULES ARE PRESENTED AS FOLLOWS:

Module 1: June 5-7

Patient Assessment for Live Therapeutic Music, Injury Prevention for CMPs

Module 2: June 7-9
