I am so excited to be featuring both of my bands at this recital - the Matt Savage Quartet and the Matt Savage Groove Experiment.

This recital is my second one at Longy, and it's very different from the first one. The repertoire is all jazz and jazz-funk this time, and the bands will be featured both in tandem and in combination (as a septet). We will be playing mostly original compositions, with a few classics thrown in there as well. And the program is representative of the two albums that I recorded this spring – one with the Groove Experiment, and one with the Quartet. Both these CDs will be out in the coming months...

It's wonderful to be back here, teaching at Longy, and we all hope you enjoy the music.
-Matt
